HARD WORKER

Above For a multi-purpose appliance, check out Grundig's GQN21220WX wine cooler fridge freezer, an American-style model that features a wine cooler compartment with adjustable 5°C-20°C temperature, telescopic wooden shelves and a tinted glass door. The fridge has FullFresh+ technology to keep fruit and vegetables fresh for up to 30 days while the Vitamin Care Zone uses blue LED lights to maintain vitamin content in fresh produce. CAPACITY 28 bottles PRICE Around £1,499

RED ALERT

Right KitchenAid's KCZWX 20600R Vertigo Wine Cellar is a 60cm integrated design, which is A+ rated for energy efficiency. Features include LED lighting, nine oak shelves and triple-glazed protective glass. There are two temperature zones as well as a multi-temperature drawer, humidity control, a preserve and age red wine compartment and vibration-proof system. There's also a vacation mode and fast cooling. CAPACITY 45 bottles PRICE Around £9,500

DUAL ZONE

Above With Fisher & Paykel's RF356RDWX1 dual zone design, the temperature can be set in each compartment to between 5°C-20°C, ideal for red and white wine. The low vibration compressor prevents excessive movement of the bottles, useful for wines with sediment, while charcoal filters protect from outside odours. It also has a UV tempered glass door, adjustable LED lighting and slide-out oak shelves. CAPACITY 144 bottles PRICE Around £1,1940

ROOM WITH A VIEW

Left This striking wine room from bespoke kitchen company McCarron & Co uses timber framing with inset glass panels to create a zoned-off area with an industrial-like feel. Clever feature lighting draws the eye to the display while a set of oak drawers with slate worktop is a practical use of the space. CAPACITY 86 bottles PRICE Fully fitted kitchens from £35,000
