1. The Westcote Blue Small Butcher's Block by The Cotswold Company packs a lot of practical storage into a small footprint, not least of which is the 12-bottle wine rack. The handy drawer with polished metal cup handles will keep knives and other utensils handy, plus there's shelf space under the wine rack and rails at either side for tea towels and oven gloves. H850xW820xD580mm. £500. cotswoldco.com 2. The mobile Cook's Companion designed by Sophie Conran for Harvey Jones features a spice drawer, five-bottle wine rack, 60mm end-grain butcher's block and a knife block set into the worktop. Hand-painted in a colour of your choice. H920xW660xD560mm. From £1,600. harveyjones.com 3. Traditional and rustic in feel, Neptune's Suffolk Freestanding Chopping Block is simple and stylish. The hand-painted finish in a wide variety of colour options, oak top and shelf and beaten metal detailing are the perfect combination of beautiful materials, functional design and practicality. W800xL500xH857mm, £995 (hand-painting service, from £140). neptune.com

4. This McCarron & Co Hampton style kitchen features a circular oak butcher's block on the island, mixing curves and straight lines to great effect. Fully fitted kitchens, from £35,000. mccarronandco.com
